I am very opposed to any further deployment of BPL technology. The currently demonstrated RF interference that it creates on the HF and the low VHF bands is totally unacceptable. The Commission should protect the interests of licensed services using the HF and the low VHF spectrum